

CALL FOR INTER-CONGRESSES

Rev. 23 August 2016

All proposals for IUAES Inter-Congresses are welcome. Inter-Congresses are organized in the years between IUAES World Congresses. The next World Congress will be held in 2018.

Those who propose to hold an IUAES Inter-Congress should write to the following:

Nominating Committee for Congresses and Inter-Congresses:

Rajko Mursic [rajko.mursic\[at\]ff.uni-lj.si](mailto:rajko.mursic@ff.uni-lj.si)

Secretary-General: Junji Koizumi [s-g\[at\]iuaes.org](mailto:s-g@iuaes.org)

IUAES Inter-Congresses have previously been held, hosted or organised by one or more than one IUAES Commissions or by national/regional anthropology associations. We welcome proposals from IUAES Commission chairs as well as other proposals submitted by credible anthropology or ethnology associations, organizations or institutions. The Executive Committee very much appreciates and encourages all anthropologists' participation in the intellectual activities of the IUAES. Demonstrated commitment to the IUAES and the academic quality are given the highest priority in considering proposals. Adequate rotation of venues between continents is also a consideration.

All proposals must include a formal letter of proposal according to the guidelines provided below. In contrast to the selection of IUAES World Congresses, which is decided by a members' vote attending an IUAES General Assembly and after presentations by the various bidders, the hosts of Inter-Congresses will be selected by the IUAES Executive Committee after it has carefully examined and assessed submitted proposals and been in contact with the proposers if there is need for clarification. Once a proposal has been approved by the Executive Committee the organisers of that Inter-Congress will be expected to make a presentation, normally at a meeting of the General Assembly where members in attendance will be able to make comment which the EC and organising committee should consider. In instances where the timing makes that impossible, the organising committee will be required to prepare for a formal on-line presentation in order to solicit IUAES members' comments to the EC.

There need not necessarily be only one Inter-Congress a year, but the Executive Committee will oversee general coordination about dates and topics. In case a proposed conference only partially fulfils the conditions for it to be treated as an Inter-Congress, the Executive Committee may approve the proposed conference not as an Inter-Congress but as another form of IUAES-sponsored meeting.
